

CHART PACK

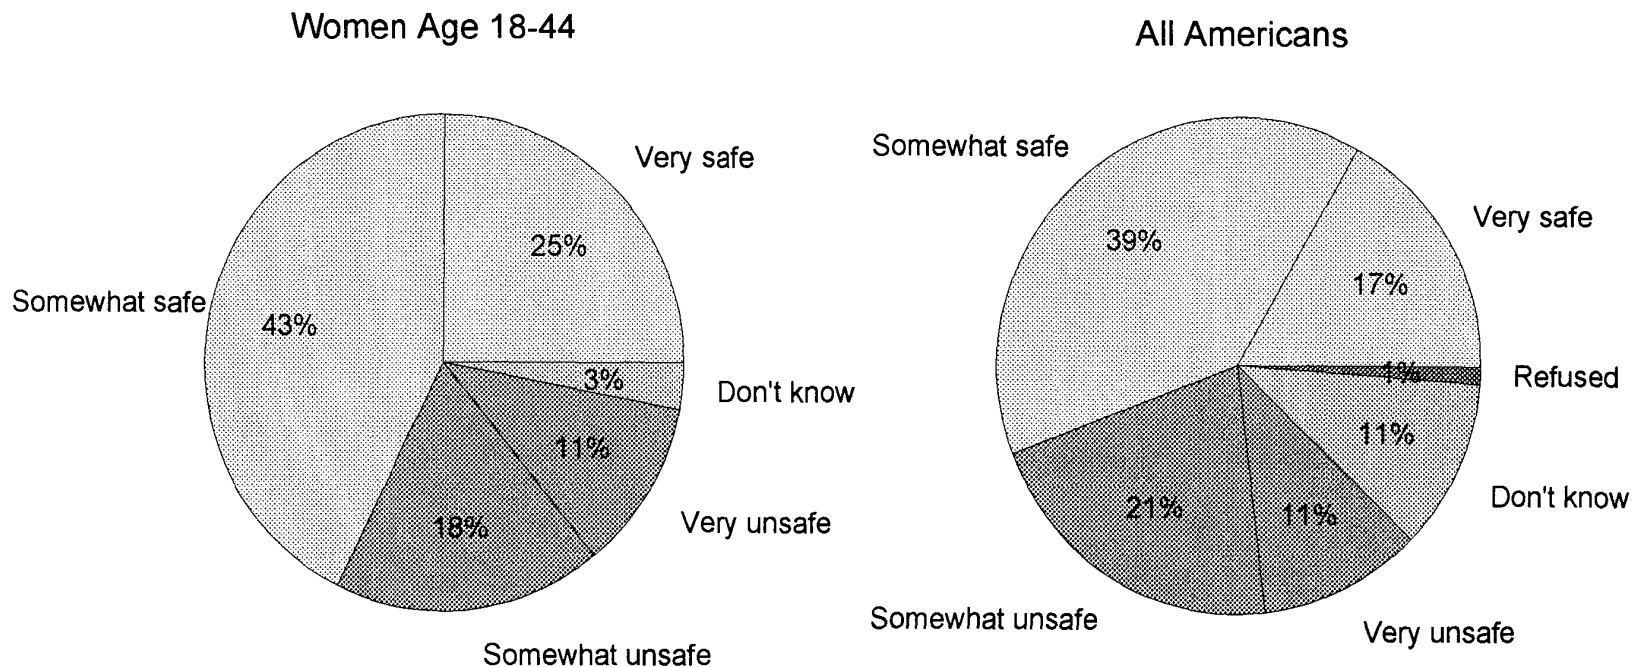

The Kaiser Family Foundation National Survey on Public Perceptions about Contraception

January 31, 1996

TABLE 1

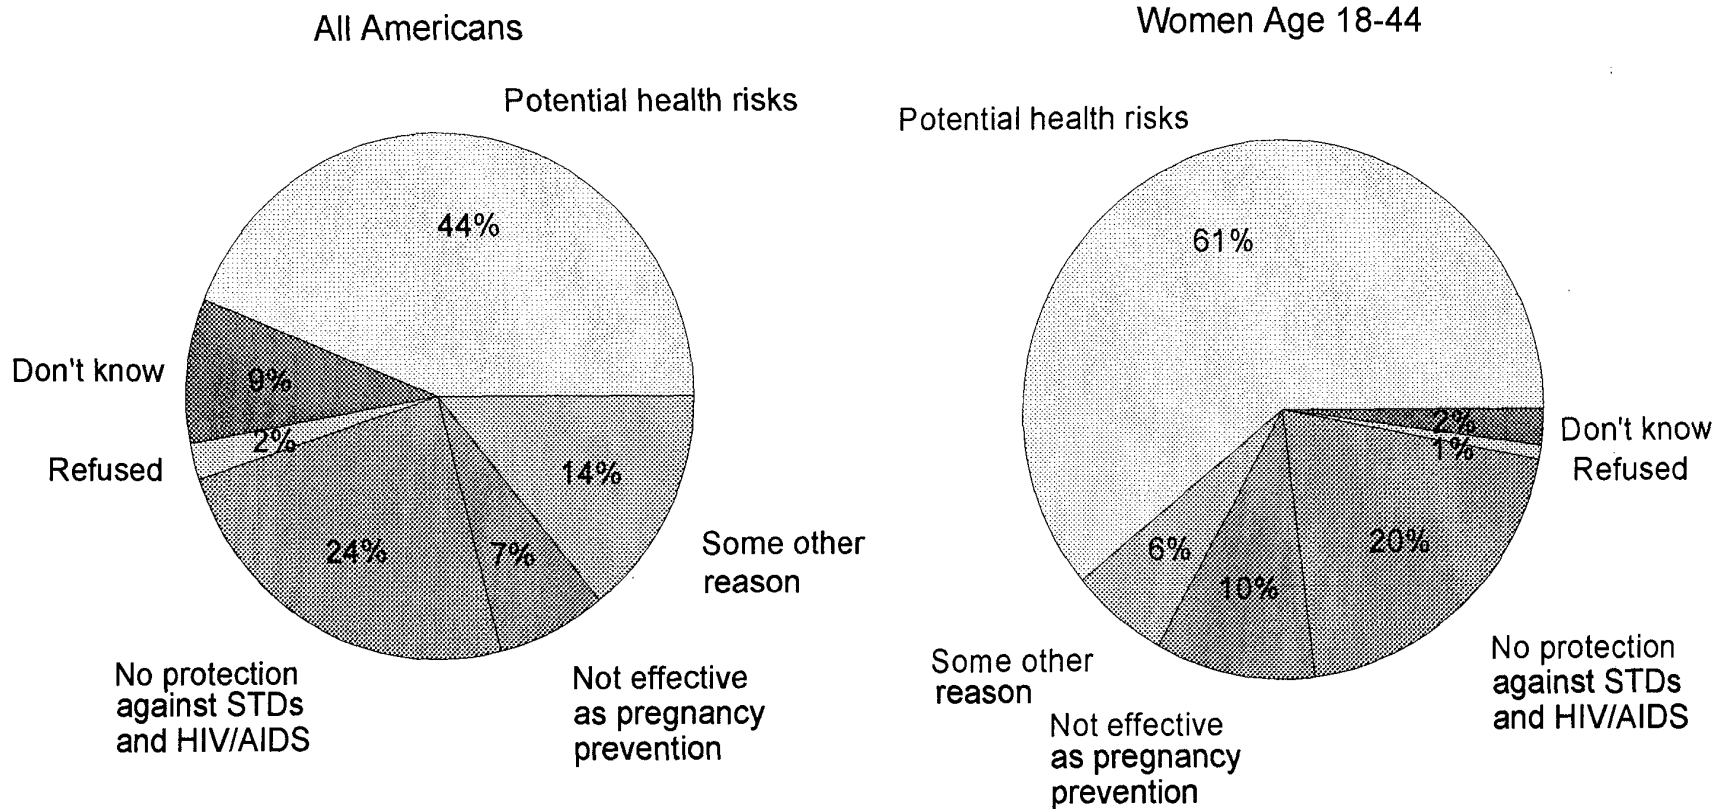

Would you say that birth control pills are very safe, somewhat safe, somewhat unsafe, or very unsafe for the health of the user?

SOURCE: Kaiser Family Foundation National Survey on Public Perceptions About Contraception, January 1996

TABLE 2

What is the main reason you do not think the pill is very safe?
Is it primarily because ...

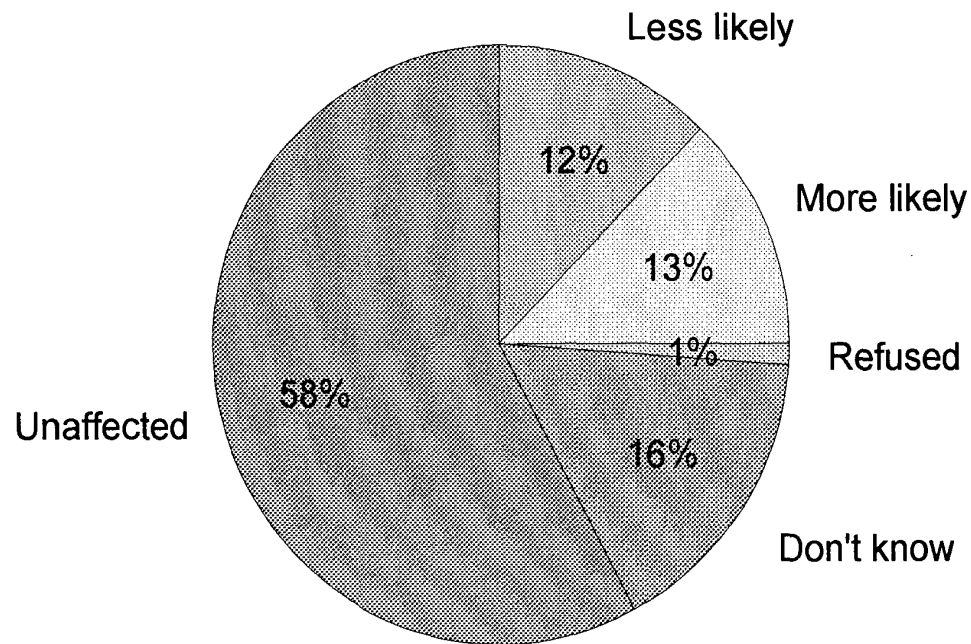

SOURCE: Kaiser Family Foundation National Survey on Public Perceptions About Contraception, January 1996

TABLE 3a

How do you think a woman's chance of getting osteoporosis is affected by her taking birth control pills?

Among Women Age 18-44

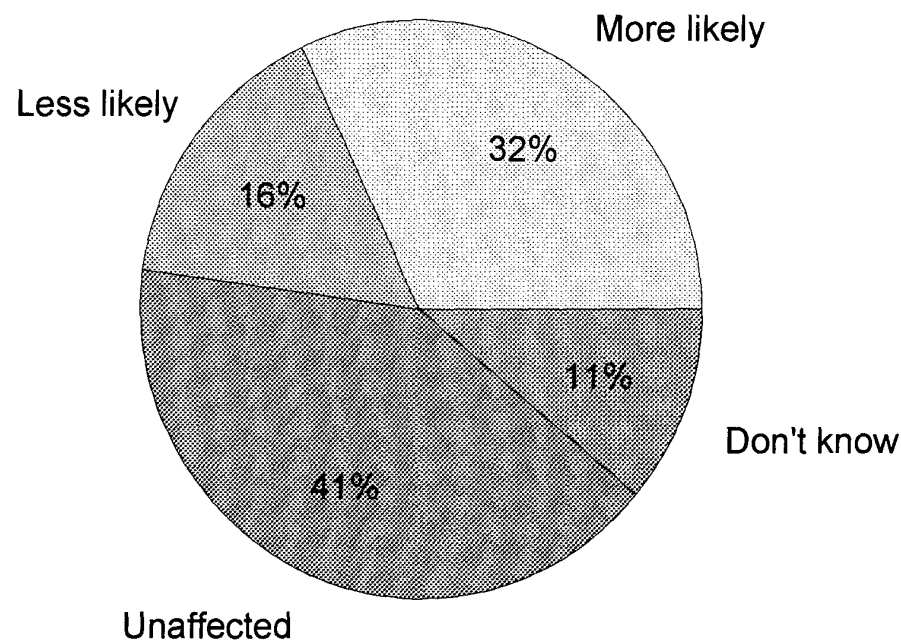

SOURCE: Kaiser Family Foundation National Survey on Public Perceptions About Contraception, January 1996

TABLE 3b

How do you think a woman's chance of getting breast cancer is affected by her taking birth control pills?

Among Women Age 18-44

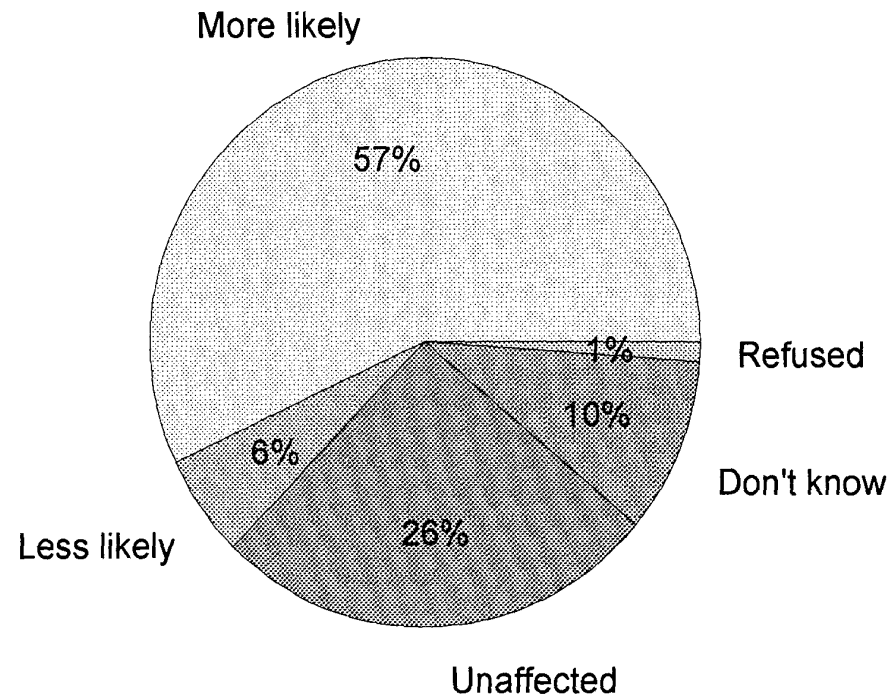

SOURCE: Kaiser Family Foundation National Survey on Public Perceptions About Contraception, January 1996

TABLE 3c

How do you think a woman's chance of getting blood clots is affected by her taking birth control pills?

Among Women Age 18-44

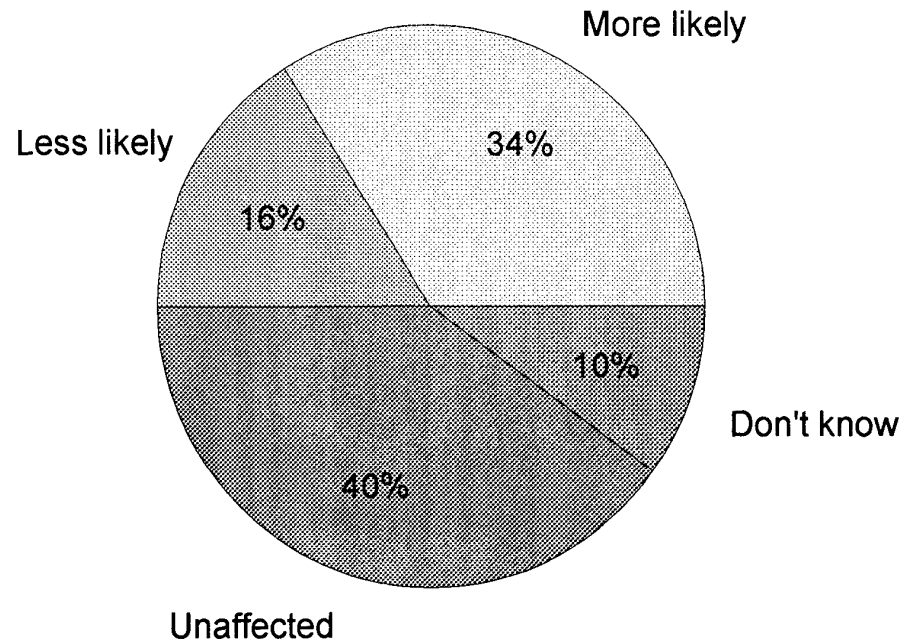

SOURCE: Kaiser Family Foundation National Survey on Public Perceptions About Contraception, January 1996

TABLE 3d

How do you think a woman's chance of getting ovarian cancer is affected by her taking birth control pills?

Among Women Age 18-44

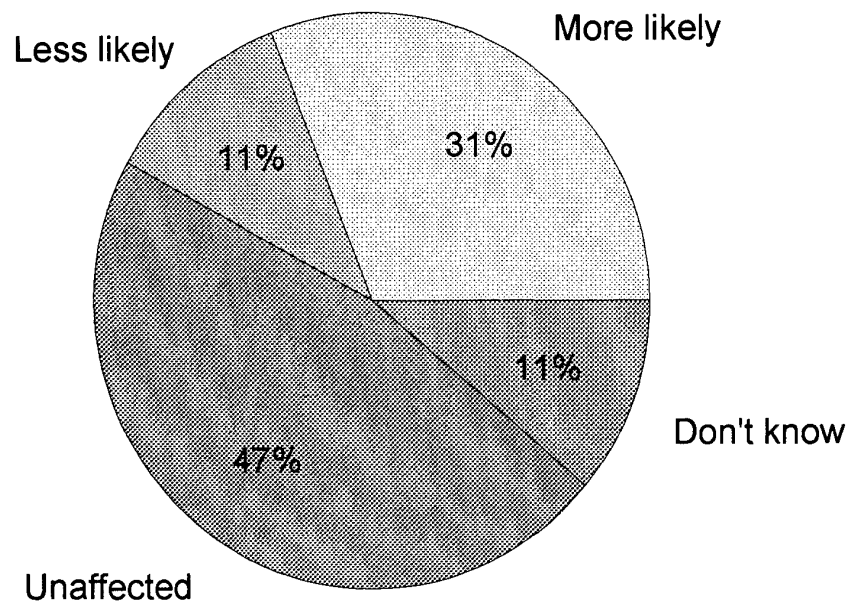

SOURCE: Kaiser Family Foundation National Survey on Public Perceptions About Contraception, January 1996

TABLE 3e

How do you think a woman's chance of getting heart disease is affected by her taking birth control pills?

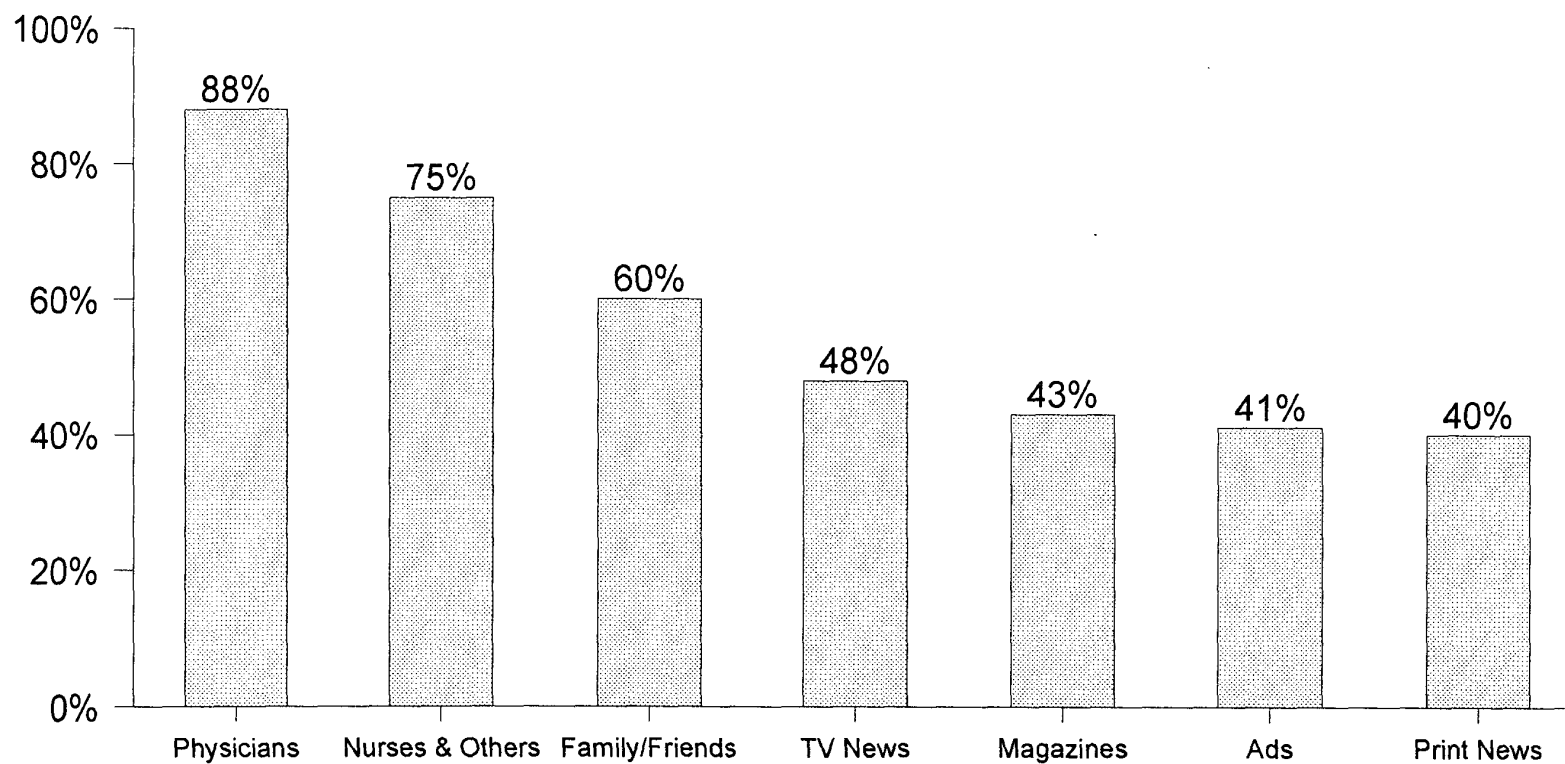

Among Women Age 18-44

SOURCE: Kaiser Family Foundation National Survey on Public Perceptions About Contraception, January 1996

TABLE 4
Sources of Information on Contraception

Among Women Age 18-44

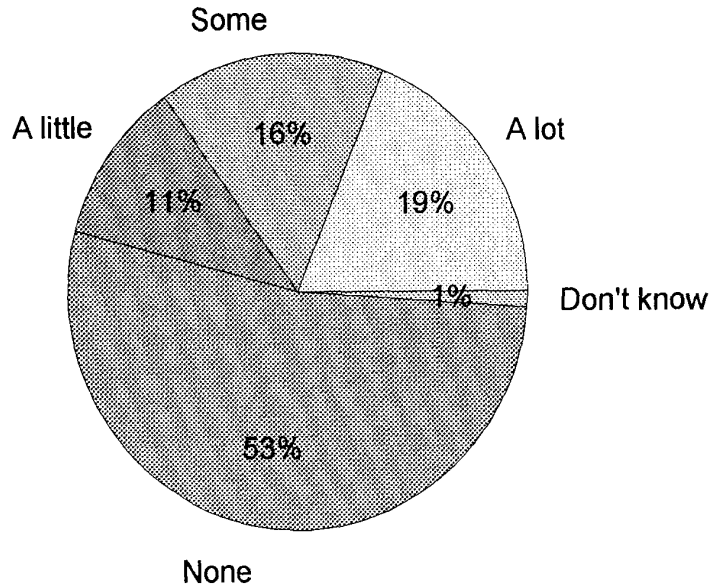

SOURCE: Kaiser Family Foundation National Survey on Public Perceptions About Contraception, January 1996

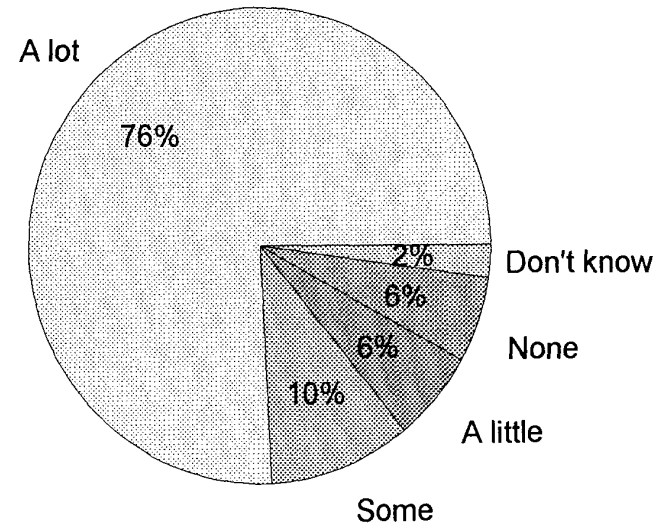

TABLE 5

How much influence did your partner have in the decision to use birth control pills?

Women age 18-44 who have ever used the pill

Men whose current or most recent partner used the pill

SOURCE: Kaiser Family Foundation National Survey on Public Perceptions About Contraception, January 1996